DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It has been held that the functional “whereby a rod-shaped central ...” statement (claim 9, lines 11-15) and the functional “whereby two lugs ...” statement (claim 10, lines 6-7) do not define any structure and accordingly can not serve to distinguish. In re Mason, 114 USPQ 127, 44 CCPA 937 (1957).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 9-11, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Black (US 4,779,321).

Re claim 9: Black discloses a bottom extending in longitudinal and transverse directions (11); a plurality of lug positioning devices (Fig. 20), one at each end of said longitudinal direction of said bottom (Fig. 1 shows four), each positioning device extending outward from a same side of said bottom and each positioning device including at least one lug opening positioned and sized to receive said lugs of said reaction rod, with an axis of said openings located in said transverse direction of said bottom, whereby a rod-shaped central portion of a reaction rod may be positioned along said longitudinal length of said bottom, with said lugs of said reaction rod inserted into said openings to thereby establish a desired length between said lugs, and further said jig being sufficiently open to permit said end portions to be fixed to said reaction rod once said lugs are engaged in said jig.

Re claim 10: Black discloses each said lug positioning device includes four protruding members which all project outward from said same side of said bottom (62-63), with a first two of said protruding members forming a first lug opening and a second two of said protruding members forming a second lug opening, with the said first and second lug openings located in the transverse direction across from each other (Fig. 1), whereby two lugs on an end portion of a reaction rod may each be located in a respective one of said first and second lug openings.

Re claim 11: Black discloses the four protruding members comprise of two supporting portions (63) and two tension blocks (62 is under tension).

NOTE: a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention (a reaction rod; a chassis of a vehicle; a wheel axle; a rod-shaped central portion and two end portions; lugs of said reaction rod; the “whereby. . .” statements in claims 9-10) must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim.

Response to Arguments

Art Unit: 3726

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Interviews After Final

6. Applicant note that an interview after a final rejection must be submitted briefly in writing the intended purpose and content of the interview (the agenda of the interview must be in writing). Upon review of the agenda, the Examiner may grant the interview if the examiner is convinced that disposal or clarification for appeal may be accomplished with only nominal further consideration. Interviews merely to restate arguments of record or to discuss new limitations will be denied. See MPEP 714.13 and 713.09.

Conclusion

7. Please provide reference numerals (either in parentheses next to the claimed limitation or in a table format with one column listing the claimed limitation and another column listing corresponding reference numerals in the remark section of the response to the Office Action) to all the claimed limitations as well as support in the disclosure for better clarity (optional). Applicants are duly reminded that a full and proper response to this Office Action that includes any amendment to the claims and specification of the application as originally filed requires that the applicant point out the support for any amendment made to the disclosure, including the claims. See 37 CFR 1.111 and MPEP 2163.06.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3726

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Rick K. Chang whose telephone number is (571) 272-4564. The examiner can normally be reached on 5:30 AM to 1:30 PM.
